The Ibaraki Central Youth Center is proud to announce its third annual English Speech Camp, taking place from December 26th to 28th.

This exciting camp is designed to help students sharpen their public speaking skills and master the art of giving presentations.

The program will be conducted entirely in English and is tailored for students with at least an Eiken Pre-2 level of English speaking and listening ability. As a minimum requirement, participants should be able to read and understand the information on this flyer.

Spaces are limited to just 20 students, so don't miss out on this incredible opportunity!

Participation Fee: ¥4,000 per student.

REGISTRATION DEADLINE DECEMBER 15
